Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Audio Files

- Letter from Birmingham Jail - Audio Recording
  The Martin Luther King Jr. Research and Education Institute: Stanford University
- Listen To An Unearthed Martin Luther King Jr. Recording You've Never Heard Recorded on February 6, 1964, at The New School in New York.
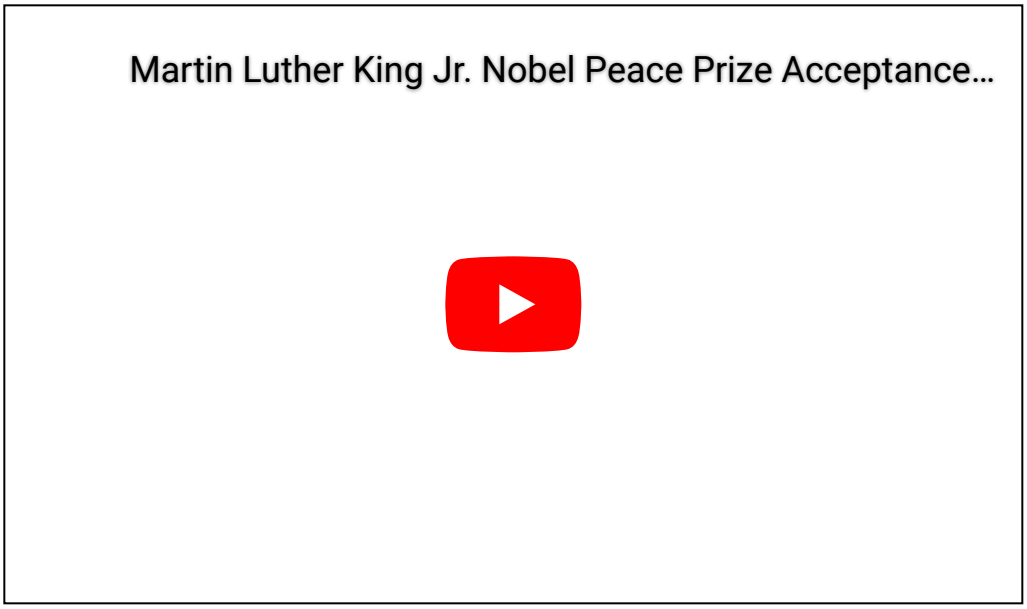
- Conversation between LBJ and MLK
  Provided by The Miller Center, a nonpartisan affiliate of the University of Virginia that specializes in presidential scholarship, public policy, and political history.
- UCLA Newsroom
  "The speech, recorded originally on 7-inch, reel-to reel tapes, will become part of the UCLA Communication Studies Speech Archive, an online collection of more than 400 speeches delivered on campus by politicians, activists, entertainment personalities and other newsmakers primarily during the 1960s and '70s."

Nobel Peace Prize Acceptance Speech. Oslo, Norway December 10, 1964.



Information

For Faculty

For Students

For Alumni

Library Staff Login

Social Media

© 2019 Saint Peter's University

| Privacy Policy | Consumer Information

Contact Us

Theresa & Edward O'Toole Library

99 Glenwood Ave, Jersey City, NJ 07306

reference@saintpeters.edu

+ 01 201 761 6460